

Disability Tax Credit Certificate

Use this form to apply for the disability tax credit (DTC). Being eligible for this credit may reduce your income tax and open the door to other programs. For more information, go to www.cra.gc.ca/dtc.

Step 1: Complete only the sections of Part A that apply to you. Remember to sign this form.

Step 2: Ask a medical practitioner to complete and certify Part B.

Step 3: Send us the completed and signed form.

For more information, see the General information on page 6. For definitions, examples of impairments that may qualify for the DTC, and a self-assessment questionnaire, see Guide RC4064, Disability-Related Information.

Part A – To be completed by the person with the disability

Section 1 – Information about the person with the disability

First name and initial		Last name		<input type="checkbox"/> Female		<input type="checkbox"/> Male
Mailing address (Apt No – Street No Street name, PO Box, RR)						Social insurance number
City	Province or territory	Postal code	Date of birth:	Year	Month	Day

Section 2 – Information about the person claiming the disability amount (if different from above)

First name and initial		Last name		Social insurance number
------------------------	--	-----------	--	-------------------------	--

The person with the disability is: my spouse/common-law partner my dependant (specify): _____

Answer the following questions for all of the years that you are claiming the disability amount for the person with the disability.

1. Does the person with the disability live with you? Yes No

If yes, for which year(s)? _____

2. If you answered no to Question 1, does the person with the disability depend on you for regular and consistent support for one or more of the basic necessities of life such as food, shelter, or clothing? Yes No

If yes, for which year(s)? _____

Give details about the regular and consistent support you provide for food, shelter or clothing to the person with the disability (if you need more space, attach a separate sheet of paper). We may ask you to provide receipts or other documents to support your request for the transfer of the disability amount.

Section 3 – Adjust your income tax and benefit return

In most cases, the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) can adjust your income tax returns for all applicable years to include the disability amount for yourself or your dependant under the age of 18. For more information, see Guide RC4064, Disability-Related Information.

Yes, I want the CRA to adjust my returns, if possible. No, I do not want an adjustment.

Section 4 – Authorization

As the person with the disability or their legal representative, I authorize the medical practitioner having relevant clinical records to provide or discuss the information contained in those records or on this certificate with the CRA for the purpose of determining eligibility for the disability tax credit or other related programs.

Patient's name: _____

Part B – Must be completed by the medical practitioner

Step 1: Complete only the section(s) on pages 2 to 4 that apply to your patient. Each category states which medical practitioner(s) can certify the information on this form.

Note

Whether completing this form for a child or an adult, assess your patient compared to someone of similar age with no impairment.

Step 2: Complete the "Effects of impairment", "Duration", and "Certification" sections on pages 5 and 6. If more information is needed, the Canada Revenue Agency may contact you.

For definitions and examples of impairments that may qualify for the DTC, see Guide RC4064, Disability-Related Information. For more information, go to www.cra.gc.ca/dtcmedicalpractitioners.

Vision – Medical doctor or optometrist

Your patient is considered blind if, even with the use of corrective lenses or medication:

- visual acuity in both eyes is 20/200 (6/60) or less, with the Snellen Chart (or an equivalent); or
- the greatest diameter of the field of vision in both eyes is 20 degrees or less.

1. Is your patient blind, as described above?

Yes No

If yes, when did your patient become blind (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as it is often the case with progressive diseases)?

Year

2. What is your patient's visual acuity after correction?

Right eye Left eye

3. What is your patient's visual field after correction (in degrees if possible)?

Speaking – Medical doctor or speech-language pathologist

Your patient is considered markedly restricted in speaking if, even with appropriate therapy, medication, and devices:

- he or she is unable or takes an inordinate amount of time to speak so as to be understood by another person familiar with the patient, in a quiet setting; and
- this is the case all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time).

Is your patient markedly restricted in speaking, as described above?

Yes No

If yes, when did your patient's restriction in speaking become a marked restriction (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as it is often the case with progressive diseases)?

Year

Hearing – Medical doctor or audiologist

Your patient is considered markedly restricted in hearing if, even with appropriate devices:

- he or she is unable or takes an inordinate amount of time to hear so as to understand another person familiar with the patient, in a quiet setting; and
- this is the case all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time).

Is your patient markedly restricted in hearing, as described above?

Yes No

If yes, when did your patient's restriction in hearing become a marked restriction (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as it is often the case with progressive diseases)?

Year

Patient's name: _____

Eliminating (bowel or bladder functions) – Medical doctor

Your patient is considered markedly restricted in eliminating if, even with appropriate therapy, medication, and devices:

- he or she is unable or takes an inordinate amount of time to personally manage bowel or bladder functions; and
- this is the case all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time).

Is your patient markedly restricted in eliminating, as described above?

Yes No

If yes, when did your patient's restriction in eliminating become a marked restriction (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as it is often the case with progressive diseases)?

Feeding – Medical doctor or occupational therapist

Your patient is considered markedly restricted in feeding if, even with appropriate therapy, medication, and devices:

- he or she is unable or takes an inordinate amount of time to feed himself or herself; and
- this is the case all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time).

Feeding oneself does not include identifying, finding, shopping for, or otherwise obtaining food.

Feeding oneself does include preparing food, except when the time associated is related to a dietary restriction or regime, even when the restriction or regime is required due to an illness or health condition.

Is your patient markedly restricted in feeding, as described above?

Yes No

If yes, when did your patient's restriction in feeding become a marked restriction (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as it is often the case with progressive diseases)?

Year

Mental functions necessary for everyday life – Medical doctor or psychologist

Your patient is considered markedly restricted in performing the mental functions necessary for everyday life (described below) if, even with appropriate therapy, medication, and devices (for example, memory aids and adaptive aids):

- he or she is unable or takes an inordinate amount of time to perform these functions by himself or herself; and
- this is the case all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time).

Mental functions necessary for everyday life include:

- adaptive functioning (for example, abilities related to self-care, health and safety, abilities to initiate and respond to social interactions, and common, simple transactions);
- memory (for example, the ability to remember simple instructions, basic personal information such as name and address, or material of importance and interest); and
- problem-solving, goal-setting, and judgment, taken together (for example, the ability to solve problems, set and keep goals, and make appropriate decisions and judgments).

Note

A restriction in problem-solving, goal-setting, or judgement that markedly restricts adaptive functioning, all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time), would qualify.

Is your patient markedly restricted in performing the mental functions necessary for everyday life, as described above?

Yes No

If yes, when did your patient's restriction in performing the mental functions necessary for everyday life become a marked restriction (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as it is often the case with progressive diseases)?

Patient's name: _____

Life-sustaining therapy – Medical doctor

Life-sustaining therapy for your patient must meet both of the following criteria:

- your patient needs this therapy to support a vital function, even if this therapy has eased the symptoms; and
- your patient needs this therapy at least 3 times per week, for an average of at least 14 hours per week.

The 14-hour per week requirement

Include only the time your patient must dedicate to the therapy – that is, the patient has to take time away from normal, everyday activities to receive it.

If a child cannot perform the activities related to the therapy because of his or her age, include the time spent by the child's primary caregivers performing and supervising these activities.

Do not include the time spent on activities related to dietary restrictions or regimes (such as carbohydrate calculation) or exercising (even when these activities are a factor in determining the daily dosage of medication), travel time to receive therapy, medical appointments (other than appointments where the therapy is received), shopping for medication, or recuperation after therapy.

1. Does your patient need this therapy to support a vital function? Yes No
2. Does your patient need this therapy at least 3 times per week? Yes No
3. Does this therapy take an average of at least 14 hours per week? Yes No

If yes, when did your patient's therapy begin to meet the above criteria (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as it is often the case with progressive diseases)?

--	--	--	--

It is mandatory that you describe how the therapy meets the criteria as stated above. If you need more space, attach a separate sheet of paper.

Cumulative effect of significant restrictions – Medical doctor or occupational therapist

Note: An occupational therapist can only certify limitations for walking, feeding and dressing.

Answer all the following questions to certify the cumulative effect of your patient's significant restrictions.

1. Even with appropriate therapy, medication, and devices, does your patient have a significant restriction, that is not quite a marked restriction, in two or more basic activities of daily living or in vision and one or more of the basic activities of daily living? Yes No

If yes, tick at least two of the following, as they apply to your patient.

- vision speaking hearing walking
- eliminating (bowel or bladder functions) feeding dressing mental functions necessary for everyday life

Note

You cannot include the time spent on life-sustaining therapy.

2. Do these significant restrictions exist together, all or substantially all of the time (at least 90% of the time)? Yes No
3. Is the cumulative effect of these significant restrictions equivalent to being markedly restricted in one basic activity of daily living? Yes No
4. When did the cumulative effect described above begin (this is not necessarily the year of the diagnosis, as it is often the case with progressive diseases)?

Year

General information

What is the DTC?

The disability tax credit (DTC) is a non-refundable tax credit that helps persons with disabilities or their supporting persons reduce the amount of income tax they may have to pay. An individual may claim the disability amount once they are eligible for the DTC. This amount includes a supplement for persons under 18 years of age at the end of the year.

For more information, go to www.cra.gc.ca/dtc or see Guide RC4064, Disability-Related Information.

Are you eligible?

You are eligible for the DTC only if we approve your application. A medical practitioner has to complete and certify that you have a severe and prolonged impairment and must describe its effects.

To find out if you may be eligible for the DTC, use the self-assessment questionnaire in Guide RC4064, Disability-Related Information. If we have already told you that you are eligible, do not send another form unless the previous period of approval has ended or if we tell you that we need one. You should tell us if your medical condition improves.

If you receive Canada Pension Plan or Quebec Pension Plan disability benefits, workers' compensation benefits, or other types of disability or insurance benefits, it does not necessarily mean you are eligible for the DTC. These programs have other purposes and different criteria, such as an individual's inability to work.

You can send the form to us at any time during the year.

By sending us your form before you file your income tax and benefit return, you may prevent a delay in your assessment. We will review your form before we assess your return. Keep a copy of the completed form for your records.

Fees – You are responsible for any fees that the medical practitioner charges to complete this form or to give us more information. However, you may be able to claim these fees as medical expenses on line 330 or line 331 of your income tax and benefit return.

What happens after you send Form T2201?

Once the CRA has received the completed and signed Form T2201, we will assess your application to determine if you are eligible to the DTC. We will then send you a notice of determination to inform you of our decision. If your application is denied, we will explain why on the notice of determination. For more information, see Guide RC4064, Disability-Related Information, or go to www.cra.gc.ca/dtc.
